

Terms and Conditions for participation in the XXVIII Student Branches Regional Meeting
Punta del Este, Uruguay 2025

For the IEEE, students are an essential part of the organization that is why these training spaces are promoted to support the full professional development of future leading engineers of Latin America and the Caribbean.

These terms and conditions apply to all meeting spaces. Any person who violates these terms may be sanctioned or expelled from the meeting. This policy is a "living" document, may be revised at any time and the terms are non-negotiable. Participation in the meeting is voluntary. Your registration or attendance at the event indicates your agreement to abide by this policy and its terms.

We value the participation of every member of our congress and want all attendees to have a pleasant and satisfying experience. Accordingly, everyone is expected to show respect and courtesy to others.

1. It is the responsibility of the attendees to accurately register their first and last names for the correct generation of identification and certifications during the registration process for the event.
2. Age requirements. No one under 18 years of age will be admitted, in accordance with Uruguayan law.
3. Once you have registered at the meeting site, you will be given an identification badge, which accredits you as a participant and must be worn during all the scheduled activities of the meeting.
4. You will not be allowed to enter the conferences after 15 minutes after the start time established in the program.
5. Out of respect for the speakers and other attendees, the conferences will be held behind closed doors, and once inside, no one will be allowed to leave. We recommend preparing for the conference before entering the room.
6. The certificate of participation will be issued validating an 80% participation in the recommended activities. The validation process will be carried out by the Organizing Committee of the XXVIII SBRM 2025 and will be reported to the institution you are representing, if required.

21. The consumption of alcohol or tobacco is not permitted in the hotel, in accordance with Uruguayan regulations.
22. It is not allowed to disturb the order or cause discomfort to other users within the establishment. As an Institute we expect the good behavior and representation of our members according to the Code of Ethics.

HEALTH INDICATIONS

1. If you have dietary restrictions, please make the respective notification with the registration form, to be taken into account by the logistics team.
2. If your health condition requires specific medications, it is your responsibility to have them for their respective treatment. The Organizing Committee of the XXVIII SBRM 2025 is not responsible for possible events.
3. In case of an accident, first assistance will be provided if necessary. In case of needing hospital care, the assistant would cover all the expenses derived from his actions, using personal health insurance or at their own expense.
4. If at the time of the event, you are under psychological or psychiatric treatment that requires specialized care, for your safety and integrity, we recommend that you refrain from registering for the event, as we do not have the technical and medical capacity to care for possible situations associated with these health conditions. Attendees must travel with valid health insurance, which may be requested at check-in.

Attendees are reminded that failure to comply with any of the above points will result in not obtaining a certificate of attendance at XXVIII SBRM 2025.

PAYMENTS AND REIMBURSEMENTS

1. Payments received are non-refundable. The option of transfers to attendees who have not registered can be evaluated. For these cases, please write the request to the official mail of the event (r9-sbrm@ieee.org), for evaluation of the case.

2. The payment process will be done through the IEEE Region 9 Sections' custodian accounts. Payments will not be accepted through any other means, except for the alternatives listed in the registration form.
3. It is the participant's obligation to pay the extra costs for using the alternative platforms provided. The Organizing Committee of the XXVIII SBRM 2025 prefers to receive payments through IEEE custodian accounts.
4. Once you have completed the registration form, you will be pre-registered for the XXVIII Student Branches Regional Meeting 2025. You will be officially registered until the payment is processed.
5. After filling out the registration form, you will have five working days to make the payment, either to your section or directly. After this period, the Organizing Committee of the XXVIII SBRM 2025 is not responsible for the reservation of places and your pre-registration will be deleted. You will have to fill out the registration form again.
